

About the Speaker: Richard Fappiano

Richard Fappiano grew up in New Haven, Connecticut where he attended Hill House High School. Following graduation, he was drafted into the U.S. Army where he served in Vietnam from 1969-70 as a data analyst and team leader for the Intelligence and Personnel Sections as a Specialist 5. It was in the midst of the death and dangers of war that Richard accepted Christ as his personal savior.

Upon return to the U.S., Richard became a social worker for the Hamden, Connecticut Police Department from 1971-74, then worked as a human relations manager for the electronics firm of Burr Brown in Tucson, Arizona from 1977-89. From 1989-99 Richard worked as a personnel investigator for the Pima County Arizona Attorney's Office, and currently runs the employment section and is the senior recruiter in the Human Resources Department at Doctor's Community Hospital in Lanham, Maryland.

Richard holds an associates of science degree from Connecticut School of Electronics, an associates of science degree from Southern Connecticut State College, and has received is executive management certification from the University of Arizona. Richard teaches Bible classes and is in charge of the Servant Evangelism ministry at his local church and is an Advisory Board member of America Reclaimed Ministries. He and his wife Carolyn live in Woodbridge, Virginia.