

About the Speaker: Rick Findley

A native of Mobile, Alabama, Rick Findley retired from the U.S. Coast Guard in 1990 as a Commissioned Warrant Officer and now makes his home in Northern Virginia with his wife Charlotte. He is also a Vietnam veteran having served with U.S. Navy riverine forces in the Mekong Delta in 1968-69. As a former Eagle Scout, Rick was active for many years in both the Boy Scouts of America and Royal Ranger programs as a unit leader, district staff member and adult/youth training instructor. He was ordained by Revival Fellowship International in 2000 and presently serves as an elder at The Connection. Rick taught the Associates Degree program in Biblical Studies for three years at his church. He completed two associate degrees in engineering at the Milwaukee School of Engineering and was class valedictorian; he finished his BA degree in Biblical Studies with Logos University and holds a Masters of Theology from Grace Theological Seminary. Rick and Charlotte have been married for over forty years and have three sons and two grandchildren also living in the Northern Virginia area. They have served on America Reclaimed Ministries' advisory board since its inception. Rick is presently working on his first book on Biblical apologetics.
