

About the Speaker: Forshonda Williams

Forshonda Williams graduated from Ramstein American High School in Ramstein, Germany in 1987. She has an Associates of Science degree in accounting from Clovis Community College, New Mexico in 1987, a Bachelors of Arts degree (cum laude) in sociology from Virginia State University in 2002, where she received numerous academic awards including being named to the Honors with Distinction List, the Deans' List, named three times to the Honor's List, received a Certificate of Achievement, and she earned a coveted spot in the National Honor Society in April, 2000. She also holds an Associate's degree in theology from Grace Seminary in Loris, South Carolina.

Following high school, Forshonda joined the Air Force in 1987 where she served as a Munitions Systems Specialist until 1995. She then worked as a legal secretary with the Prince William County Attorney's Office, served as an Account Clerk with the Prince William County Watershed Management Division, and Department of Social Services, earned a position as a co-manager for Bath and Body Works, worked as a substitute teacher for Special Needs Students at an elementary school in Prince George, Virginia, as a teacher with a private Christian school in Woodbridge, and is currently working as an Extended Care Preschool Assistant at a Christian school in Fredericksburg. Forshonda also serves as the Children's Church Director for The Connection in Woodbridge, Virginia. She and her husband Ron have two children and live in Fredericksburg, Virginia. They both currently serve on the Advisory Board of America Reclaimed Ministries.