A Time for God to Reign in America. Part 3, Conclusion

By Dan Noel

In Part 1 we learned that we were made for signs and wonders (Isaiah 8:18) and that these signs and wonders of God's glory will heal America. Additionally, we saw that God blessed us with all spiritual blessings and chose us in Him before the foundation of the world (Ephesians 1:3-4). We also discussed how the Spirit of truth guides us in all truth (John 16:13) and that the Holy Spirit reveals God's strategy for reclaiming America and His vision for America.

Then in Part 2 we saw that faith is now. We've been programmed by the world we live and think in terms of time, but Jesus operated in the now. The supernatural is man's natural world. It's what we've been designed for, as the Bible says, "...the just shall live by faith." (Romans 1:17)

Additionally, in Romans 8:5-6 we saw, "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.” Notice it says that to be carnally minded is death. That is the realm of the enemy, and the devil will do everything he can to keep you operating in his realm. But, we are not supposed to be operating in his realm. We are called high above it to be spiritually minded which is life and peace. There is no death in heaven so why are Christians wallowing around carnally minded in death? We have been succumbed by our senses and the world around us. We have been transformed to it rather than living on a level with God, and transforming the world.

We learned that we must stop drifting into time consciousness, because we are not there anymore. That’s not the miracle realm.

In Genesis 17:1-7, we see an amazing truth, “And when Abram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God; walk before me, and be thou perfect. And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying, As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations. Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.” Now I ask you, did this just happen or was this ordained before the foundation of the world? God didn’t just have a thought go across His cerebral cortex that moment and decide to give Abram goose bumps. Abram fell on his face before God. God was able to re-establish a covenant relationship with man that had been lost with Adam and Eve, and we are Abraham’s seed and part of this covenant between Abram and his seed for generations everlasting.

God has called you a success before the foundation of the world. God has called you healed before the foundation of the world. God has called you prosperous before the foundation of the world. God has called America to be a land dedicated to the glory of God and the advancement of the Christian faith before the foundation of the world. So get out there and walk in everything God wants you to move in. Be that walking talking tabernacle of the true and living God. Walk by faith from the inside out, demonstrating signs and wonders for those in and out of the kingdom that are still carnal. America belongs to Christ and has since before the foundation of the world.

When we talk about the Word in this world we’re talking about a reality that comes with power and the demonstration of that power. God wants His power to be demonstrated in this world. Jesus said in John 14:12, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also, and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.” In Jesus’ ministry He dealt with the situations in the earth by operating on another level. Jesus, the second Adam once again showed man how to operate in the glory realm of God. When Adam fell, he lost that ability as he gave authority to the devil. Adam was then trapped in time. Similarly, when the devil was thrown out of heaven he too lost the ability to operate in the glory realm of God and became trapped in time. God then was able to teach Abram to reach back to the foundation of the world and take something from there that had been set aside for mankind and live in that miraculous realm. So even when Abraham was old he was able to be the father of many nations because there is no time in the realm of God's glory. Satan can't work in that realm. He can't work miracles. He works witchcraft, which is a carnal work. Man, however, is called to operate in the kingdom of God and live in a timeless realm. In Romans 4:17-22, we see, "(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness." Now looking at verse 17 we notice God didn't tell Abraham that He will make him the father of many nations. No, God had made him a father of many nations. In God, it was already done. Abraham didn't see the instant manifestation of that, but notice

Abraham had to get his faith and words aligned in agreement with what God had provided before the foundation of time.

You can't say, "I'm going to get healed," and expect results. "I'm going to be healed," is not in the Bible. You have to say the words of God to get the results. If you wait to see something before saying it, that's man's way and doesn't work in the kingdom. Once again looking back to verse 17 we see that God calls things that be not as though they are. That is God's way, and you have to operate God's way to get a God result.

When Jesus spoke to the fig tree His disciples heard it. He subjected Himself to ridicule. That's why most Christians who are mature enough to know what to do still don't do what they know to do. They are afraid of ridicule. When Jesus went into the house of Jairus they laughed at Him. That's the price for a miracle. They don't laugh long when they see the miracle.

When Jesus was on the boat and the storm arose, His disciple came to Him in fear. That's the devil trying to draw Jesus out of His faith. He didn't even answer them, but rather simply said, unto the sea, "Peace, be still." (Mark 4:39) Immediately the wind ceased and the sea calmed.

In Mark 6:1-2, we see, "And he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him. And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?" It's time to be led by our spirit, not our mind. We must truly develop our spirit because that is where we operate in revelational knowledge of God, the timeless realm of God's kingdom, and see the move of the Spirit in a mighty way. Once you develop your faith you can pray for someone, releasing your faith, and then go to sleep; because your faith won't stop until the job is done. When Jesus rebuked the fig tree it was the next morning that Peter noticed it was dried. Jesus had spoken and had gone on, yet His faith was working where it was spoken, and produced what God commanded. Train your spirit to be sensitive to God's voice. You may be in a middle of a conversation when God drops something into your spirit to say. We've grown up listening to the outside. Get to a place where you can prophecy yourself.

Also, praise God, He will protect you and your children. Look at Matthew 2:13, "And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the LORD appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him." Egypt represents the world. God even used the world as a place to protect Jesus until Herod died. Then an angel appeared to Joseph saying, "Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel...." (verse 20) You may have a child in the world today, and yet being protected by God, and the Lord is going to call that child out of the world into the land of Israel.

When you are dealing with God and miracles the first thing you have to get beyond is time. Time has been programmed in our minds by a fallen world, and we have to go through Scriptures and remove time thinking from our minds. For example, we should not expect it to take 6 weeks for a broken bone to heal. Faith is now. In Amos 9:13, we see, "Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed...." We are going to a place where faith is now and doesn't operate limited by time. If you are not in the now you are not in faith. In God, next week and today are no different. In God, 50 million years from today, and now are no different. Wrap your mind around it. Understanding time is the doorway to miracles. The world can't understand this because they don't have the God kind of faith. God is the God of the now, and when you walk with Him, there is no future in you, only the now.

In Mark 7:26-28, we see the Greek woman, "...a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter. But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs. And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs." Jesus called her a dog and yet she hung in there rather than pouting and walking away. That answer revealed the wisdom of God. She saw the Gentiles one day being delivered. She had faith and told Jesus even the dogs get the crumbs. Jesus then bypassed time. It wasn't time yet for the gospel to reach outside Israel, yet Jesus compressed time for her and told her, “For this saying go they way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.” (Mark 7:29)

Her faith overrode time, and we see the result of that in verse 30, “And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.” If you can understand time and God’s dominion over it then you can understand miracles, because in miracles, God steps over the steps that would normally be involved in something happening in the natural. There is no future, there is only now. It is indeed a time for miracles.

Notice how Jesus has total authority. He walked on water, overriding the laws of gravity. So did Peter. It’s key to know what you have and what you can do. Nothing could stop Jesus, and nothing can stop you.

However, our minds haven’t been renewed in operating on a supernatural level in concert with God in a timeless Gospel, in a timeless reality. There is no time in God. The Father has no birthdays. In God, everything is now. If we can operate on that level, then all anxiety about the future goes away. We shouldn’t be saying, “Oh I hope so.” That’s a fear based consciousness. Faith takes you over, and time bows to faith.

Be miracle minded. Expect them. Expect signs to follow you. It is time for miracles and God is looking for people to speak the Word, and speak like He speaks. You were chosen before the foundation of the world for this time. When you release God’s Word, you release God. You are not waiting on God, God is waiting on you.

In John 11:1-7, we see where, “Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha. (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was. Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.” Now let’s look at a couple points here. Lazarus was sick and his sisters went to get Jesus, to go with them before it was His time. Then Jesus told them, “This sickness is not unto death, but to the glory of God.” Unfortunately, some churches have taken that out of context and made a doctrine about it. If you think your sickness glorifies God, then stop taking your medicine. Don’t come against the sickness if it glorifies God. However, when we go on and start reading again in verse 20 we see, “Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house. Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:”

When Jesus told Martha that her brother will rise again, she responded with a time consciousness that said, "I know he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day." (verse 24) However, Jesus spoke now. His reply was, "I am the resurrection...." (verse 25) Oh, to have the revelation of that truth alive in our spirits. He spoke now. His power is now.

A fallen ungodly society tries to tell you who you are and what you can do. But you are supposed to be conformed to the image of Christ not the carnal world.

We have to get past corrupt minds tripping us up. We've not been given a spirit of fear, but a spirit of power, love, and a sound mind. God calls you a conqueror, God calls you healed. In Joshua 1:8 we see, "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written herein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." It's your responsibility to keep the Word in your mouth and not speak anything contrary to it. It's your responsibility to meditate in the Word day and night. It's your responsibility to do all the Word says. God gave you the Word seed and power to walk in total victory and He is commanding you to do so. Yes there are problems, but you win over them all in a now faith conscious. God called you a mighty man or woman of valor before the foundation of the world.

Looking back to verse 5 we see, "There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life:" You are not subject to man, but to God. It doesn't matter what the media says. It doesn't matter what the World News says. What do they know? Nothing. The world knows nothing without the revelation of God.

The Bible says mortify the deeds of the flesh. Adam lived out of his spirit before the fall. Jesus lived out of his Spirit and enables us to live out of our spirit. God is no respecter of persons. He is a respecter of faith. It is a time for miracles. The world is waiting for a sign, and it is time for signs and wonders to follow you.

America will indeed be reclaimed by God. America will be reclaimed by God's chosen people alive in Him, doing His work, speaking His Word, as a witness unto His glory. God Bless You!
